Plaintiffs,

v.

VISALUS, INC., a corporation, et al.

Case No. 17-cv-12626
Hon. Matthew F. Leitman

AMENDED ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND FINAL JUDGMENT

Plaintiff Eric J. Harris, Sr., acting individually and on behalf of the Settlement Class (“Named Plaintiff”), filed an Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Proposed Settlement and Final Judgment (the “Motion”). The Motion seeks final approval of the Named Plaintiff’s agreement (“Agreement”), for himself and on behalf of the Class, with ViSalus, Inc. (“ViSalus”), Nick Sarnicola, Ashley Sarnicola, Blake Mallen, Ryan Blair, Todd Goergen, Gary J. Reynolds, Vincent Owens, Kevin Merriweather, and Michael Craig (collectively “Defendants”) to settle all individual and class claims that have, or could have, been made, in Plaintiffs’ Third Amended Complaint as specified in their written settlement agreement (“Settlement Agreement”). This Court, having reviewed the Motion and the exhibits, including the Settlement Agreement, finds itself apprised of the issues and grants the Motion.

NOW, THEREFORE, this Court, having heard the oral presentations made at the Final Approval Hearing, having reviewed the submissions presented regarding the proposed Settlement, having determined that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and having received arguments concerning the award of attorneys' fees, and having reviewed the materials in connection therewith, and now deeming itself to be fully informed;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The capitalized terms used in this Order and Judgment shall have the same meaning as defined in the Settlement Agreement except as may otherwise be ordered.
2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, all claims raised therein, and all Parties thereto, including the members of the Settlement Class.
3. This Court finds, solely to consider this Settlement, that the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 are satisfied, including requirements for numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy of representation, manageability of the Settlement Class for settlement, that common issues of law and fact predominate over individual issues, and that Settlement and certification of the Settlement Class is superior to alternative means of resolving the claims and disputes.
4. The Settlement Class, which will be bound by this Final Approval Order and Judgment, shall include all members of the Settlement Class who did not submit timely and valid requests for exclusion. No members of the Settlement Class timely opted out of this Class Settlement.

5. Plaintiff Eric J. Harris, Sr. has served fairly and adequately as class representatives of the Settlement Class.

6. These attorneys have served fairly and adequately as Class Counsel:

Andrew Kochanowski
Lance C. Young
Sommers Schwartz, P.C.
One Towne Square, Suite 1700
Southfield, MI 48076

Matthew Prebeg
Prebeg, Faucett & Abbott PLLC
8441 Gulf Freeway, Suite 307
Houston, TX 77017

Edward Wallace
Mark Miller
Wexler Wallace LLP
55 W. Monroe St. Suite 3300
Chicago, IL 60603

7. For purposes of this Final Approval Order and Judgment, the Settlement Class is:

All U.S. Independent Promoters of ViSalus, Inc. who qualified for units in the Founders' Equity Incentive Plan between January 1, 2015 through March 1, 2017.

8. Excluded from the Settlement Class, even if they meet the criteria above, are (i) Defendants, and any IPs owned, controlled or otherwise affiliated with any Defendant other than merely by the IP's status as an IP; (ii) IPs who are named defendants, or who are owned, controlled, or otherwise affiliated with named defendants in Kerrigan et al. v. ViSalus, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:14-cv-12693; (iii) the presiding judge(s) and his or her (or their) immediate family; (iv) any individual who elects to be excluded from the Settlement

Class; and (v) any person who has previously released claims against Defendants or whose claims have been fully and finally adjudicated by a court with jurisdiction over the claims.

9. This Court finds that the Notice Plan in the Settlement Agreement and effectuated under the Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Final Approval Hearing, and satisfies the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and any other applicable law. This Court further finds that Defendants have fully and timely met the requirements for notice to appropriate federal and state officials under 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and this Order is issued ninety (90) or more days after the service of such notice.

10. The Agreement is fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interests of the Settlement Class, considering the risks that both sides faced regarding the merits of the claim alleged and remedies requested, the risks of maintaining a class action, and the expense and duration of further litigation. Therefore, this Court has determined that the Agreement should be approved. The Parties shall effectuate the Agreement according to its terms. The Settlement Agreement and every term and provision thereof shall be deemed incorporated herein as if explicitly set forth and shall have the full force of an Order of this Court.

11. Upon the Effective Date, the Settlement Class, each of the Class Members, and the Named Plaintiffs (collectively, “Releasers”) shall have, by operation of this Final Approval Order and Judgment, fully, finally and forever released, relinquished, and discharged the Released Persons from all Released Claims under the Settlement.

12. Releasers are permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing or prosecuting, either directly or in any other capacity, any Released Claim against any of the Released Persons.

13. This Final Approval Order and Judgment, the Settlement Agreement, the Agreement which it reflects, and any and all acts, statements, documents or proceedings relating to the Settlement are not, and shall not be construed as or used as an admission by or against Defendants or any other Released Person of any fault, wrongdoing, or liability on their part, or of the validity of any Released Claim or of the existence or amount of damages.

14. The claims of the Named Plaintiffs and all members of the Settlement Class are dismissed in their entirety with prejudice. Except as otherwise provided in this Order and/or in this Court's Order Awarding Attorneys' Fees and Expenses entered in this action, the parties shall bear their own costs and attorneys' fees. The parties have agreed that ViSalus will pay an award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount determined by the Court. The Court has examined the Class counsel's motion for attorneys' fees detailing the attorneys' time logged, usual and customary rates, expenses and awards in similar cases in light of the six factors described by the Sixth Circuit in Ramey v. Cincinnati Enquirer, Inc., (6th Cir. 1974) and determines that an award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $115,000 is reasonable and should be, and is herewith, awarded.

15. The Named Plaintiff, Eric J. Harris, Sr., has, in the opinion of the Court, worked hard on behalf of the Settlement Class. The Court therefore approves an incentive award to Eric J. Harris, Sr. in the amount of $15,000.00

16. This Court finds that no reason exists for delay in entering this Final Order and Judgment, so the Clerk is directed forthwith to enter this Final Order and Judgment. However, the Court reserves jurisdiction over implementation of the Agreement, including enforcement and administration of the agreement and the award of attorneys' fees and costs.

17. The Parties, without further approval from this Court, are permitted to adopt such amendments, modifications and expansions of the Agreement and its implementing documents (including all exhibits to the Settlement Agreement) as may be necessary or expedient to implement the Agreement, so long as they are consistent in all material respects with the Final Order and Judgment and do not limit the rights of the Settlement Class or any of the Class Members.

18. Without affecting the finality of this Final Judgment for appeal, the Court retains jurisdiction on all matters related to the administration, enforcement, and interpretation of the Agreement and this Final Order and Judgment, and for any other necessary purpose.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
